

STATEMENT OF FACTS

5. On January 31, 2018, CRL submitted a FOIA request to OMB for certain records related to payday loans, vehicle title loans, or longer-term consumer installment loans. The request specified that it sought records created or received by OMB between November 24, 2017, and the date of processing of the request.

6. The request contained two parts. The first part sought any and all communications concerning payday loans, vehicle title loans, or longer-term consumer installment loans, to or from any staff of OMB, including Mick Mulvaney, including but not limited to, communications concerning:

- a) the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB)'s final rule addressing payday, vehicle title, and certain high-cost installment loans, released October 5, 2017 (the Payday Rule), see 82 Fed. Reg. 54,472 (Nov. 17, 2017), including CFPB's decision, announced January 16, 2018, to reconsider the Payday Rule;
- b) litigation involving CFPB and Golden Valley Lending, Silver Cloud Financial, Mountain Summit Financial, or Majestic Lake Financial, including CFPB's January 18, 2018, dismissal of its action against these lenders; and
- c) CFPB's investigation into the practices of World Acceptance Corporation, including CFPB's reported January 2018 decision to discontinue the investigation.

7. The second part of the request sought any and all records concerning meetings about the topics covered by the first part.

8. In its request, CRL sought a full waiver of fees and explained in support that disclosure of the requested information would be in the public interest and not for commercial use.

9. On February 2, 2018, OMB acknowledged CRL's request and assigned it OMB FOIA number 2018-143.

10. CRL repeatedly contacted OMB over the next several months to seek an update on the request. On September 24, 2018, OMB informed CRL that it had initiated a search for potentially responsive records.

11. On October 10, 2018, OMB estimated that it would respond to CRL's request in August 2019.

12. More than 20 working days have passed since OMB received CRL's January 2018 FOIA request, and OMB has not made a determination on the substance of the FOIA request, produced any records in response to the request, or made a decision on the fee waiver request.

13. CRL has exhausted all administrative remedies with respect to its January 2018 FOIA request.

CAUSE OF ACTION

14. CRL has a right under FOIA to the records it requested and to a public interest fee waiver.

15. There is no legal basis for OMB's failure to disclose the requested records.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, CRL requests that this Court:

- (1) Declare that OMB's withholding of the requested records is unlawful;
- (2) Order OMB to make the requested records available to CRL at no cost and without delay;
- (3) Award CRL its costs and reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(E); and

(4) Grant such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

Dated: January 28, 2019

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Rebecca Smullin
Rebecca Smullin (D.C. Bar No. 1017451)
Micah Bluming (Cal. Bar No. 314273)*
Public Citizen Litigation Group
1600 20th Street NW
Washington, DC 20009
(202) 588-1000
rsmullin@citizen.org

---

* Active member in good standing of the State Bar of California and the Supreme Court of California, authorized to practice under the direct supervision of Rebecca Smullin pursuant to D.C. Court of Appeals Rule 49(c)(8) during the pendency of first application to the District of Columbia Bar submitted within 90 days of commencing practice in the District of Columbia.